Recognizing Physical Signs of Abuse, Trauma and Neglect of Seniors

Presented by Suzanne Sherwood, MS, R.N., Professor: University of Maryland School of Nursing Patient Care, R Adams Shock Trauma Center

Elder abuse is often unnoticed and unreported. This training is aimed at the community to become familiar with signs of physical trauma, physical abuse and neglect in the elderly.

Friday, June 15, 2012 from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.:

RX/OTC Drug Abuse

Presented by Claude Nelson, Maryland Community Crime Prevention Institute

This awareness and prevention workshop will overview the current trend and prevalence of prescription (RX) and over-the-counter (OTC) medications as illicit drugs of choice for abuse by young people, and more importantly how parents and seniors play a role in both its cause and prevention. It will also address the reliance of society on medications for relief from illnesses, pain and other health issues that can lead to complications due to self administration.
